JEAN-BAPTISTE ADAM CRÉMANT D'ALSACE BRUT NV • SPARKLING

This dry sparkling wine is made in the same way as Champagne, but it comes from the region of Alsace in eastern France. It's crafted by Jean-Baptiste Adam and his daughter, Laure, whose family has been making wine here for 15 generations, dating back more than 400 years. They farm organically to produce a sparkling wine that's light, floral, and highly refreshing.

DOMAINE DROUHIN CHABLIS 2022 • WHITE

Drouhin is one of the most storied names in the history of French wine. Today, the family-run estate offers a deep catalog of whites and reds from all across Burgundy. This white from the cold, northerly area of Chablis is as crisp and refreshing as any wine in their lineup. It's classic Chablis, meaning dry, citrusy, and a bit salty.

SCRIBE ESTATE ROSÉ OF PINOT NOIR SONOMA VALLEY • 2022 • ROSÉ

This bright rosé comes from Scribe, a Sonoma Valley winery run by brothers, Andrew and Adam Mariani. The fourth-generation California winemakers harvest their pinot noir earlier than their other grapes. This, coupled with cool breezes coming from the Pacific Ocean, yield a particularly fresh and vibrant expression of rosé.

PRESQU'ILE PINOT NOIR SANTA BARBARA COUNTY • 2022 • LIGHT RED

Tart, floral, and a bit spicy, Beaujolais is France's quintessential light red wine. This version from a traditional winemaker who employs techniques typically found in Burgundy - showcases Beaujolais' classic freshness.

QUERCIABELLA IL TURPINO SUPER TUSCAN 2020 • BIG RED

Querciabella - a family winery based in the heart of Chianti - makes this rich, full-flavored red from organic vineyards along the Mediterranean coast. As is common for Super Tuscans, it's made with grape varieties more commonly found in Bordeaux than central Italy.
